EAGLE, IDAHO - Tucked away in the Treasure Valley corner, nestled between the foothills and the Boise River, you'll find the charming town of Eagle, Idaho. It's a city notable for its high-end subdivisions, horse properties, spas, and scenery. The Boise River, with its expanse of towering trees and pedestrian paths known as the Greenbelt, runs through the heart of town. Eagle is in a class by itself regarding character, recreation, and charm with its quaint downtown area, various local events, and a strong sense of community pride.

Eagle's most significant appeal is the old-town feel—especially in the historic downtown area where vintage-style street lights line the main corridor. The older part of Eagle showcases mature, treelined streets, stately homes on large lots, and beautiful, family-friendly neighborhoods and parks. Many specialty boutiques and restaurants provide a central location for locals to meet up with friends for shopping and dining. Smart city planning has allowed Eagle to maintain its character while catering to the growing population's needs.

RECREATION ABOUND

Whether your type of recreation is on two wheels or two legs, you'll find it within Eagle city limits in the foothills, on the golf course, or along the Greenbelt. Home to the Eagle Sports Complex and Bike Park, this massive 200-acre park is one of the countries' largest. Eagle is home to two of the Treasure Valley's established golf courses - Banbury Golf Course and Eagle Hills Golf Course.

Eagle Island State Park is a beautiful 545-acre state park with a waterslide, sandy beaches, a picnic area, and more than five miles of trails where outdoor enthusiasts can ride horses, walk their dogs, and play disc golf. The park also offers paddleboard rentals plus a 6-line zip line course and is home to Gateway Snow Park, which features multiple snow tubing runs in wintertime.

From May through early October, stop by the Eagle Saturday Market at Heritage Park in the heart of downtown Eagle. Browse a variety of vendors selling specialty foods, locally grown produce, and handmade arts and crafts while listening to the sounds of local musicians.

SET APART

The scenic setting, excellent schools, safe, family-oriented neighborhoods, recreation, and many social events are some of the reasons Eagle is one of the most desirable communities in the Boise area, genuinely exquisite.
