KUNA

Resident Spotlight

WHO: Allen Family

FIRST NAMES: Casey, Megan, Bethany, Micah, and Selah

WHAT YEAR DID YOU MOVE TO KUNA: 2016

WHERE DID YOU MOVE FROM: California in 2015. Spent a few months in Nampa before purchasing a home in Kuna

HOBBIES: Fishing, fishing, and more fishing; and if there is time after fishing, hiking, running, biking on trails and greenbelt.

WHAT DO YOU LOVE ABOUT KUNA: Small town feel but close to Meridian, Boise, and Nampa; great parks close by and fun things to do with the kids; lots of families in same stage of life as us; great homeschool community

WHAT DO YOU LOVE ABOUT IDAHO: Like-minded conservatives; lots of great outdoor activities year-round; the reasonable cost of living; large faith-based community; large homeschool community; 4 seasons but summers not generally too hot and winters not generally too cold.

KUNA, IDAHO - The small country town of Kuna is growing at an accelerated pace for good reasons – affordability and location. And that’s not all. Despite the rapid growth, Kuna maintains a country setting and rural roots where the simple life still exists. The country landscape inspires families to enjoy the outdoors, explore local nature paths, and visit neighborhood parks. There’s a greenbelt to walk on, a river to wade in, and the desert foothills to hike. The ambiance of the area invites folks to be friendlier here—families hold the door open for others, look people in the eye, and say hello to strangers.

As the city evolves, commercial development is matching the pace of Kuna’s residential growth. The addition of several restaurants and fast-food establishments, grocery and retail stores, and other small businesses are changing the landscape around town and meeting essential community needs. With its expanding commerce, Kuna is more self-contained, and residents can find what they need in their friendly community.

SMALL-TOWN CELEBRATION

The beauty of living in a small, growing town is that you are part of the old and the new. Experience the old-fashioned fun of a country carnival at Kuna Days. This two-day summer festival celebrates the history of Kuna and takes place at Bernie Fisher Park downtown. The entire community seemingly shows up for this special annual event. The festivities close each night with a spectacular fireworks display.

In winter, residents come out in droves and stand shoulder-to-shoulder, embracing the cold to enjoy the Down Home Country Christmas parade on Main Street. The event culminates with residents counting down to the city's lighting of the Christmas tree at Bernie Fisher Park.

NEW LIFE

Revitalization is taking place in Kuna's downtown area, making it a destination for locals and visitors. As businesses on Main Street upgrade their exterior and more family boutiques and unique restaurants open, Kuna's quality of life and vibrant community spirit brings a unique hometown feel to downtown.

In the heart of town, alongside Indian Creek, is the Kuna Greenbelt. The greenbelt is replete with places to splash in the water or picnic under mature, green trees. The area also boasts a BMX dirt track and skateboard park, Little League baseball fields, and a new splash pad for cooling off in the summer heat.

The countryside surroundings and the friendly hometown atmosphere make Kuna an attractive place for families to settle.
